

I would like to see two changes made to FCC regulations:

1. Access to public airwaves leased to broadcasters for an annual fee that represents a substantial portion of the economic opportunity provided by that access.
2. Broadcast and print media ownership limited to one station/publication per owner.

These are fundamental requirements of a modern democratic society.